Leeliu has the ability to touch one in a depth that is powerfully intense yet so soft tender and lighthearted. It is in her presence that makes each women unfurl the parts of her held tightly and celebrate the divinity of the feminine in all her forms. With ease and grace and of course, genuine celebration - she guides presence and breath into sacred moments with the divine. Sitting with Leeliu in ceremony, I feel instantly at home. Sisterhood is effortlessly woven by her presence. I have watched her time and time again sing and pray and dance with sisters as we emerge from our shells, our cocoons and chrysalises, guided by her heart and tapping into the sweet power that resides within us. The way Leeliu's authentic presence and joy for life touched me I can never be the same again. Her tenderness wrapped me up in a way that I learned how to hold myself again. I am forever grateful for this dear woman and hold her in the highest light.

Just being around her activates the codes within ... activates the Power of the divine Feminine around. Calling in the wild woman, the spirits of the land, & our ancestors wisdom ... Her ceremonies are pure transmissions. Bringing us back to our essence. It's A remembrance. Of the Old Ways, that are the catalyst to birth a New way so we can rise ... Together.

Your ceremonies are guided by your deep devotion to the divine. I felt held and supported by your presence, the ancestors and Mother Gaia. You give a special touch to everyone in the circle and invite the space to be open for any kind of self expression. I loved all of the songs we sang, felt as if I were singing them many times before. You remind us of what we really are and what this truly is by celebration. What you do is beautiful and I was so grateful to be apart of it. I hope many more can be showered with your love.

PRIVATE GROUP CEREMONIES, SESSIONS

My online one on one session with Leeliu was powerful. She took me into a guided meditation to tap me into and unlocked the messages meant to show me the next steps on my journey. The potency of the session lasted a few days as I noticed a heightened sense of sensitivity to the world, messages would come in dreams and visuals. I am grateful for her guidance and her potent energy of the goddess that walks this earth. She was truly a pleasure to work with.

My experience with Leeliu's work was nothing short of divine. She has the ability to show up as both a person, a vessel, and a goddess. Her kind compassion and warrior spirit combine to create a powerful space prime for deep internal work and rapid expansion of self. She brings in medicine through her voice, her presence and her attention itself is nothing less than healing.

If you have the chance to work with her I highly recommend it as you will feel through her self she anchors the remembrance of oneness.
